

The Remuneration Committee will determine policy within its remit set out above in line with staff and be able to evidence decisions as necessary.

Transparency and accountability

The Remuneration Committee shall ensure their approach to remuneration and decision making is transparent and annually publish remuneration details of its senior team with any significant changes to remuneration packages being detailed.

Constitution

- I. ~~Transparency and accountabi~~

